

Tenuta CastelGiocondo Campo ai Sassi 1999

Campo ai Sassi 1999

Rosso di Montalcino DOC

Campo ai Sassi Rosso di Montalcino displays the same characteristics as Brunello, but in a more youthful, less complicated manner. It is produced from the same grape, Sangiovese, but from vineyards with vines that have very deep roots and yield wines which are aromatic and elegant, and less tannic than the Brunello.

Climatic trend

The growing cycle this spring in Tuscany was standard. Sunshine in July encouraged early maturity of the grapes. Some sparse rain in August helped the vines with the work of maturing the fruit, and gave the plants and leaves the nutrients they needed. Finally, the months of September and October allowed the grapes to bask in sunshine and gave them a healthy and ideal maturing environment.
