

Tenuta CastelGiocondo Campo ai Sassi 2003

Campo ai Sassi 2003

Rosso di Montalcino DOC

Campo ai Sassi Rosso di Montalcino displays the same characteristics as Brunello, but in a more youthful, less complicated manner. It is produced from the same grape, Sangiovese, but from vineyards with vines that have very deep roots and yield wines which are aromatic and elegant, and less tannic than the Brunello.

Climatic trend

The weather, hot and sunny during the summer as in the rest of Tuscany, was perfect during the harvest period. The grapes were brought to the winery in excellent condition, rich in sugars and more skins in the must than in past years. The flavors are fruity and velvety.

Tasting notes

Deep red in appearance, of admirable clarity and brilliance. A classic suite of fragrances lifts the nose, with cherry and plum leading off, followed closely by more matured nuances, of cinchona and tobacco. The palate offers an appealing richness, leading with a judicious acidity and well-calibrated tannins.

Wine pairing: Egg-pasta dishes such as pappardelle in hare sauce, or with boar, or with any red meat, whether steak or stews.
