

Tenuta CastelGiocondo Campo ai Sassi 2011

Campo ai Sassi 2011

Rosso di Montalcino DOC

Campo ai Sassi Rosso di Montalcino displays the same characteristics as Brunello, but in a more youthful, less complicated manner. It is produced from the same grape, Sangiovese, but from vineyards with vines that have very deep roots and yield wines which are aromatic and elegant, and less tannic than the Brunello.

Climatic trend

During the month of August two verified climatic events of extraordinary importance took place which shaped the characteristics of the grapes by force of the natural elements. The first half of August was characterized by sunny days, with daytime temperatures never above 30°C, and very cold nights. In the second part of August the strength of the sun gave power and concentration to the red grapes. The final result is that we have obtained red grapes of extraordinary health, mature, concentrated and rich in polyphenols. The harvest began the 16th of August and was completed the 5th of October.

Tasting notes

Campo ai Sassi 2011 appears a lively, purple-flecked ruby. Its complex, multi-layered bouquet boasts fragrances of wild berry and luscious notes of roast espresso bean and cocoa powder, lifted by subtle nuances of spice. Its structure and body are superb and finely balanced, while the finish, with delicately aromatic fruit, seems almost endless.

Wine pairing: Egg-pasta dishes such as pappardelle in hare sauce, or with boar, or with any red meat, whether steak or stews.
