Mormoreto 2001

Toscana IGT

This is the great wine of the Castello, from the vineyard Mormoreto planted in 1976. The first vintage was from the 1983 harvest, and since then has been produced only in the most favourable years. It was not produced from the harvests of 1984, 1987, 1989, 1992, 1998 or 2002. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Petit Verdot, planted 150 years ago, have, over time, formed an intimate bond with this terroir and now bring out all of its unique qualities. It is a wine of great depth, opulent and refined, that you can cellar for many years.

Climatic trend

The harvest at the historic estate got under way on September 3rd and concluded on October 18th with the picking of the Sangiovese and Cabernet Sauvignon. The quality of the 2001 production appears very good. The considerable heat experienced in August did not stress the vines, since they enjoyed good water reserves after the rains in July.

Tasting notes

A brilliant, deep ruby flecked with purple. Berry fruit fairly explodes on the nose, with crisp, fresh aromas seemingly squeezed straight from the bush; sweet, spicy notes of vanilla, cinnamon, and black pepper follow, crowned by elements of maturation such as leather and tobacco. It shows a tight-knit tannic texture and a powerful structure, the whole being impressively crisp, juicy, and full-flavoured. The finale is nicely lingering.

Wine pairing: Terrific partner with any long-cooked meat dish, such as marinades, pot roasts, and stews. Delicious with aged cheeses.
