

Castello Pomino Pomino 2010

Pomino 2010

Pomino Bianco DOC

This superbly elegant and stylish blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Bianco comes from one of Tuscany's greatest white-wine growing areas, grown in vineyards at elevations as high as 700 metres.

Climatic trend

The 2010 harvest concluded on October 20. Spring 2010 was marked by frequent rainstorms, which made life difficult for the viticulturalists with regard to vineyard operations and anti-fungal efforts, but the rain also had the benefit of building up groundwater reserves. The summer months experienced a rather even alternation of decent rains and sunny days. September brought ideal conditions, with cool nights and warm, sunny days right through to the end of the harvest. The upshot was that the vines performed splendidly, and the fruit arrived in the cellar with optimal ripeness levels.

Tasting notes

Appearing a luminous, vivacious straw-yellow, Pomino Bianco offers an elegant bouquet of clean-edged aromas, with white-fleshed fruit the first to emerge, including apple, pear, peach, and banana, followed by fragrant hints of lily of the valley and hawthorn. An ultra-velvety texture, rich depth, and superb balance contribute to a remarkably elegant palate; its savoury fruit and vibrant acidity beautifully complement each other. A lengthy, delicious finish completes a wine that is both refreshing and refined.

Wine pairing: As an aperitif, or with vegetarian antipasti, fish steaks or fillets, such as salmon
