Ripe al Convento 1995

Brunello di Montalcino Riserva DOCG

The Ripe al Convento vineyard, lying at 350-450 metres' elevation, yields a wine that is the fruit of painstaking quality selection, first in the vineyard and then on sorting tables in the cellar, where every berry is examined. This Brunello Riserva exhibits a remarkably distinctive personality and significant cellarability.

Climatic trend

The blossoming of vines in 1995 was atypical. Low spring temperatures delayed development of the buds and flowers. Summer was not as hot as usual in Tuscany, but rainy and humid, and not until September did the quality of the vintage become evident. Lots of sunshine and perfect temperatures assured a gradual and progressive maturation so intense that winemakers believe 1995 could be considered the "vintage of the century".
