Ripe al Convento 2003

Brunello di Montalcino Riserva DOCG

The Ripe al Convento vineyard, lying at 350-450 metres' elevation, yields a wine that is the fruit of painstaking quality selection, first in the vineyard and then on sorting tables in the cellar, where every berry is examined. This Brunello Riserva exhibits a remarkably distinctive personality and significant cellarability.

Climatic trend

At Castelgiocondo, the harvest began at the start of October. The weather, hot and sunny during the summer as in the rest of Tuscany, was perfect during the harvest period. The grapes were brought to the winery in excellent condition, rich in sugars and more skins in the must than in past years. The Sangiovese for the Castelgiocondo Riserva is very intense in color and excellent in structure. The flavours are fruity and velvety.

Tasting notes

This wine displays an intense ruby-red with garnet highlights, bright with a lovely consistency. It develops a remarkably complex bouquet, ranging from initial scents of red and black wild berry fruits such as plum, blackberry, blackcurrant and cherry, then to wild strawberries and vanilla. At the finish notes of roasted espresso bean, cocoa and tobacco leaf emerge with fresh mineral hints in the background. It displays notable smoothness and alcoholic warmth on the palate balanced with a lively acidity and fine-grained tannins. It concludes with an almost endless finish subtly laced with well-ripened fruit.

Wine pairing: Stews, plates of slowly cooked meats and aged cheeses
